Headteacher Comment

This week we celebrated anti-bullying week. The children started the week in odd socks to celebrate differences and show that everyone is unique. We have been reinforcing S.T.O.P to determine how the children recognise bullying (Several Times On Purpose). The children have demonstrated maturity and empathy to each other in their discussions. They have come up with ideas of how they can help if they see others being bullied or what to do if someone is bullying them.

To add to the anti-bullying theme 'reaching out' and to promote taking care of each other, we took part in fundraising for Children In Need. Thank you for all your kind donations. The money will be sent to the charity and will be spent on supporting children and families in need across the UK.

Thank you for your generosity, we have raised over £170!!!

Additionally, the pupils took part in a 'Time Detectives' workshop in which they were asked to identify various artefacts from the Victorian period and identify their uses. They will be continuing their investigation into Victorian life by using the resource box provided by the museum.
