Headteacher Comment

This week our subject leaders have been visiting different classes to see the work going on in their curriculum areas. Miss Palfrey has been busy looking at standards in maths. She has been watching lessons, talking to the children and looking at books. We have also focussed on science, history, design technology, Spanish and PSHE (Personal, Social, Health Education). It has been great to see all the children working hard and engaging so enthusiastically in their learning. All children are trying really hard to catch up on any parts of the curriculum they have missed.

Despite the snowy weather conditions, our children have been busy on school trips. Y5SJ children visited St. Mary's Church as part of their RE curriculum and Y5AF will go next week. All of the Y6 children went on a trip to Crucial Crew which focuses on personal, social and health education. These visits give our children the unique opportunity to learn valuable skills and insights from professionals through interactive demonstrations and discussions in real life situations. Further trips and workshops will take place over the spring term for all our year groups.

Year 1 have enjoyed exploring how to make robots move as part of their computing lessons.

A huge well done to Lincoln Graham who won the 12 Days of Reading Christmas Challenge and has now received a £20 Waterstones voucher to spend on books of his choice.

Year 6 were busy "crucial crewing" on Tuesday morning.

They learnt:

- How to react correctly to dangerous and threatening situations
- How to avoid becoming a victim of an accident or crime
- To understand the role of the emergency and support services and when and how to contact them.
- To gain life skills which may help to keep themselves and others safe whilst out in the community.

This "crucial" information was relayed to them in short, fun interaction sessions led by members of the following organisations:

Greater Manchester Police, One Trafford's Traffic and Road Safety Team, British Transport Police, School Nurses and the Dogs Trust.

The children behaved impeccably and engaged in the tasks sensibly. They have learnt some very valuable information, which will help keep them safe as they become more independent in the future.
