We continue to try and improve our attendance so that children are in school every day and they avoid missing learning. Please remember that if your child has minor symptoms or is on medication then you can complete a medicine form for us to administer their tablets/medicine during the day. We will always ring you if they deteriorate during the day. Medicines must be labelled and forms completed before we can administer to your child.

Reading is one of the most important parts of school life. It is an area of the curriculum that parents can support. If you read with your child daily you can make a significant difference to your child's learning and well-being. Research by The Book Trust has revealed that children who read from babies and all the way through to early teens, have profound and wide-ranging benefits that can have a lifelong positive impact on children's lives. The studies have shown that the 4 most significant advantages are:

- They are more likely to overcome disadvantage caused by inequalities
- They are more likely to be happier, healthier and experience better mental wellbeing and self-esteem
- They are more likely to do better at school and make more progress across the curriculum
- They are more likely to develop empathy and creativity

More information on the benefits of regular reading can be found at www.booktrust.org.uk. You can find recommendations, book lists and top tips to help your child to read. It really does make a difference!

Value of the week!

Challenge: Can you demonstrate this week's school value together at home?

Honesty: To speak or act truthfully.

- Did you tell the truth about something you saw?
- Did you explain what happened when something went wrong?
- When you made a mistake did you admit it and apologise?
 - Did you accept a consequence for a mistake?
- Did you apologise for something that was your fault?
 - Did you admit to taking the last biscuit?

We would love to see any photos of you showing this value at home

so, we could share them in school!

Fond Farewell: On behalf of everyone at PCA we would like to say a fond farewell to Miss Millington. We would like to congratulate her on her new job and wish her every success in her new post as she takes to the skies working for an airline company! Miss Millington has worked for many years at PCA and in many different roles. She will be greatly missed in classrooms as a TA, in Kidzone and in her role as lunchtime supervisor. I am sure that all the children and parents will join me in wishing her well in her new adventure. We will miss her! Good luck and best wishes, Miss Millington!

Year 3 enjoyed a fun-filled day on Tuesday when a Roman Centurion came to visit. They were taught about all the different military manoeuvres and were given swords and shields so they could bring these fighting techniques to life. Archaeology was also a part of the day, where they dug for artefacts and played Roman games, such as Ludus which was a firm favourite.

Y6 children have been raising awareness about the use of plastics and about ways to help save our planet. They created informative posters to share essential information about reducing plastic waste and about being responsible citizens. Here are some examples of their excellent work.
